Hi Laura,

No it is not okay to set up or distribute information from your organization at the Army's upcoming meeting. I am informed by Army management that no handouts from any non-governmental organization should be distributed at any official Army meeting, to avoid any perception of Army endorsement of the material.

Hi Joan,

Would it be okay if we set up a small table for literature at the Dec 11 public meeting? We have some handouts that we would like to make available to folks.

Laura
